

Category:Warriors

Warriors are people who engage in violent conflict. They are as varied as the cultures, places, and time periods from which they come. Some fight unarmed, while others wield weapons of varying degrees of complexity and power. Some warriors belong to professional armies, while others are trained in less official modes and places, while still others are essentially untrained altogether.

This category was created to include historical warriors; soldier is a more common term when referring to those involved in warfare from the early modern era onwards, for which Category:Military personnel and its sub-categories
